The Rovena Farmhouse (Casale Rovena) is an evocative destination for a dreamy holiday. It is a perfect spot for excitement and relaxation, where one can merge into the enchanting atmosphere and become part of unforgettable moments of pure and healthy relax.....

Casale Rovena is immersed in various hues of green and charming chestnut trees. This destination is surrounded by uncontaminated woods, and clear and pure rivers and streams. It is located in Rondinelli, around three kilometers from the center of Arcidosso, and in the Fauna Park of Amiata and of the Natural Reserve of Mount Labbro(700 m. o.s.l.). Casale Rovena is a romantic resort, ideal for nature lovers and those who unwind in its peacefulness. Moreover, it is a place for people in love who wish to find a romantic nest and for those who long to restore the connection between body and soul. For families, Casale Rovena offers them the perfect getaway to escape the chaotic lifestyle they are used to and allows them to plunge into a surreal atmosphere full of fascination and poetry. There is a myriad of colours and scents to explore, and captivating scenes that follow each other creating landscapes that mirror fairytale images. The woods are absorbed by the luxurious, clean air and are filled with orchards, buttercups, thyme, violets, raspberries, strawberries, and delicious mushrooms of every type. These are only some of nature's ingredients that this splendid area of Casale Rovena offers its visitors.

This place is particularly suitable for horseback riding excursions and mountain biking. The numerous nature trails and paths bring the hiker through toward the rocky nature of Mount Labbro. Casale Rovena invites people to hold hands with nature and become part of the delightful ambient, and most importantly it allows one to indulge into the delicious, famous dishes and cuisine of the Tuscan region.
